Location	Alchemy Mornington Road, Southport
Responsible to	Lead detached youth mentor

Parenting 2000 is a charity established in 1994 by a group of parents; based in Sefton we run a range of services that provide emotional and practical support, information and guidance targeted at benefitting vulnerable children, young people and families in our borough.

Our organisation is recognised for its strong track record in providing effective interventions to support to children and young people and families.

Parenting 2000's Youth provision, operates under the brand name 'Alchemy'

JOB OVERVIEW

Detached youth mentors will make themselves accessible by being based in the High Park neighbourhood at times when young people are most likely to be out and about, such as late afternoon and evening times.

You will work alongside the Lead Detached Youth Mentor on delivering a programme to engage & support young people aged 9 years to 18 years old, from the High Park neighbourhood of Southport, who are identified as potentially at risk of exploitation.

You will encourage and support young people to act as volunteers within the groups that are developed

MAIN DUTIES

1. To reach young people in a variety of settings focusing on the High Park Area of Southport, wherever young people meet and develop their social education.
2. To utilise intelligence from partners /stakeholders including local police, schools and colleges, children's social care, police, probation services, youth offending teams, health, MASH Team, community groups, local authority and local businesses Social Care, to work in areas recognised as "hot spots" and provide consistent and regular youth work support to encourage those involved to take part in new positive opportunities and experiences.

3. To reach young people who are involved in anti- social behaviour and related disorder to help them identify their goals and to promote current programmes to help them achieve them.
4. Refer and 'hand hold children and young people' if required for specialist support such as substance misuse/addiction mental health, sexual health, housing, debt advice, leisure and socialisation etc. In particular mentors will steer young people into employment/ training opportunities to break the cycle of offending, by working with youth focused organisations that provide employment support such as The Princes Trust and Groundwork.
5. To establish appropriate risk assessments, guidelines and procedures for detached work and ensure detached workers are appropriately resourced and trained to undertake the work effectively.
6. To support young people to engage / re-engage in mainstream youth activities within the localities
7. Maintain accurate records of all plans, actions, assessments, and outcomes using specified systems
8. To undertake a range of day to day administrative duties to ensure the smooth running of the service.
9. Ensure that client information data is lawfully gathered, accurate, up to date and only divulged in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018.
10. The post holder will be expected to carry out any other duties that are reasonably requested of them.
